Women and Men's Health

Women's Health

Breast Screening

Women between 50 and 70 are invited for regular Screening. An X-ray is taken to look for abnormalities. It is important to regularly check for unusual lumps and bumps yourself and report any changes to a doctor.

Cervical Screening

Cervical Cancer can often be prevented. Screening saves over 1000 lives every year. Ages 25-49 should attend a test every 3 years. Ages 50-64 should attend a test every 5 years.

Men's Health

Testicular Cancer

Testicular Cancer usually affects men between 15 and 44 years old. Lumps can be painless. Check yourself for lumps or bumps, swelling, pain, or any unusual changes.

Prostate Cancer

Prostate cancer is the most common form of cancer in men. Look out for problems such as peeing more day or night, rushing to the toilet, difficulty starting to pee, weak flow or pain when you pee.

For more information, see a doctor or call NHS 111
